

CaSR Biomedicine
Training Network

ETN School 23-25 May 2018

“SELF-PRESENTATION & COMMUNICATION”

Gödöllő, Hungary

Day 1: 23 May 2018
8.30 – 8.50	Registration and welcome coffee
8.50 – 9.00	Opening lecture (E. Kallay – Coordinator)
9.00 – 9.45	How to prepare an attractive, professional CV? (A. Dinnyés)
9.45 – 10.30	Self-branding, professional network building, bridging the employability divide between academia and industry (A. Dinnyés)
10.30 – 10.45	Coffee break
10.45 – 12.15	Differences in requirements for academic and industrial research (L. Pugliese)
12:15 – 13.30	Lunch break
13.30 – 17.00	Case interview workshop (Case Solvers)
13.30 – 13.45	Reception, seating
13.45 – 13.50	Opening
13.50 – 14.00	How to get into consulting
14.00 – 14.20	How to approach cases
14.20 – 14.45	Sample interview & learnings
14.45 – 14.55	Coffee break
14.55 – 15.40	Guesstimation x2
15.40 – 16.55	Profitability x2
16.55 – 17.00	Learning and closing

CaSR Biomedicine Training Network

Day 2: 24 May 2018
9.30 – 10.45	Review. Dealing with nonconformities, NCRs, Correction and corrective action. (A. Hollo-Tas)
10.45 – 11.00	Coffee break
11.00 – 12.30	Assessment (registration) and surveillance of a DQS. Auditing of Management Systems. (A. Hollo-Tas)
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch break
13.30 – 15.00	Auditing of Management Systems – Part 2 (A. Hollo-Tas) Q&A (A. Hollo-Tas)
15.00 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17:00	Qualities a large company is looking for Top management consulting as global employment opportunity (Cornelius Walter, McKinsey)
17.00 – 18.30	Mock interviews and “admission marathon”, Q&A (McKinsey)
19.00 – 21.00	Dinner with McKinsey

Day 3: 25 May 2018
9.00 – 10.00	Surviving in the information jungle (J. Angerer)
10.00 – 10.30	Coffee break
10.30 – 12.30	Practical session on communication activities (J. Angerer)
12.30 – 13.00	Wrap-up, concluding remarks (E. Kallay – Coordinator)
13.00 –	Lunch break